CPAC Business:

Working Groups / Task Force:

All working groups will start back in a couple of weeks.

A655 Working Group

Round Table Conversations

Equity Working Group

Citywide CEP Template – The group has not met but the DCEP template is completed.

Digital Learning & Dyslexia Task Force

CCEC Elections Working Group: Updates on the DOE's CCEC Elections timeline for educating, applications, voting, announcements of results, and orientation. All 38 Presidents' Councils have their dates for their candidate forums. A D75 seat will be added to the Community Education Councils and will run concurrently with CEC elections. However, the only person who can vote for D75 seats are parents of D75 students.

CPAC Updates:

CPAC's Committees exist so further discussions can be expanded on various topics and concerns. Those discussions can be brought back to membership. All members are encouraged to join at least one committee.

CPAC's committees are as follows:

1. Capacity Building and Support
2. Communications
3. High School
4. Legislative
5. Multilingual Language Learners
6. Special Education
7. Title I
8. Wellness (Health & Safety).

Reminder! Check the website for news, info, events, and resources.

WE ARE CPAC!

A video was displayed of each of the 38 Presidents' Councils district /borough /city which make up CPAC membership. We need all members to contribute and talk about what's going on in each district and borough. How are we reimagining schools? Membership spoke what is being done in their district and or borough.

Admissions: Sarah Kleinhandler and Matt Brogini (Exec Dir of Middle and HS Admissions)

Earlier timelines and central open house calendar, school day SHSAT, fairer process for screening based on feedback and schools will admit top performing applicants across each middle school and citywide. Discussed the waitlist process and had a Q&A session with membership.
