

Winter/Spring 2023 Professional Development Calendar for Education Councils

All sessions run from 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Date	Topic	Description	Facilitators	Registration
Thursday, January 26, 2023	Resolution A Funding	Learn how to help your school community obtain additional government resources.	Mark Treyger, Executive Director, Intergovernmental Affairs, DOE	Register via Zoom Here
Monday, January 30, 2023	The Opportunity of Conflict: Part 1	This training is part one in a two-part series that will support CEC members in navigating conflict in their work by normalizing conflict and challenging participants to lean into conflict and reframe conflict in a way that is beneficial.	David Mensah, DKB Wave Training & Consulting	Register via Zoom Here
Monday, February 6, 2023	Resolutions & Relationships with Elected Officials	In this session you will learn about CCEC resolutions -- what they are; why they are used to elevate concerns; and how to work collaboratively with your elected officials to advocate for your schools' needs.	Camille Casaretti, CEC 15 President	Register via Zoom Here
Monday, February 13, 2023	The Opportunity of Conflict: Part 2	This training is part two in a two-part series that will support CEC members in navigating conflict in their work by normalizing conflict and challenging participants to lean into conflict and reframe conflict in a way that is beneficial.	DKB Wave Training & Consulting	Register via Zoom Here
April/May TBD	Annual Superintendent Evaluation	This session will review best practices and processes for completing the superintendent evaluation and discussing the evaluative categories with the superintendent in advance.	Nequan McClean, CEC 16 President	Registration Coming
Monday, May 8, 2023	Adult Professional Development	This presentation will showcase some of the DOE's more than 900 tuition-free classes for adults 21 and older, highlighting summer 2023 offerings.	Stacey Olinger	Registration Coming