

NYC Educators: Do you have supplies you don't need at the end of the year?

Don't throw them away – donate to Materials for the Arts!

Materials for the Arts (MFTA) is NYC's largest creative reuse center. We collect donated materials from across the city and offer them to public schools, artists, and community organizations for free! We can help your supplies find a new home.

Materials for the Arts

Before you leave school for the summer, drop off your leftover supplies at MFTA!

When:

- Thursday, June 20th (2-6PM)
- Monday, June 24 (9-2:30PM)
- Wednesday, June 26 (9-2:30PM)
- Friday, June 28 (9-2:30PM)

*Special Event: Drop & Shop!

When you donate on Thursday, June 20th you can shop for free supplies in our warehouse!

Where:

33-00 Northern Blvd
Loading Dock
Long Island City
11101

We accept:

- Fabric and trim
- Unused Paper
- Arts & crafts supplies
- Theatrical props
- Beads & jewelry
- Office supplies
- Framing
- Household items
- Paint

Do you have more than a car-full of materials? We might be able to pick it up for you. Email our Donations team at donations@mfta.nyc.gov

